The Class of 1998 has been down a long road. The majority of us have been together for many years. We've seen many people come and go along the way.

For many of us there is one person who will never be forgotten. Michael Hiscock was a young boy with a perpetual smiling face and a positive outlook on life. Unfortunately his was a life that would be short-lived. However, it was not too short to touch the lives of others.

It can only be told to those students who did not get the chance to know Michael that he was a great person who, if given the chance, would have made something of himself and touched even more lives than he already had. Even after a yearlong battle with a brain tumor, Michael remained brave and kept the smile for which he is remembered by so many.

Michael J. Hiscock

1979-1990

Remembered By The Class Of '98

WRITTEN BY: ROB WALDNER

Mrs. Lane has always been a bright spot in the guidance office. She was prepared with congratulations when we were accepted to colleges and gave us tissues when we were not. She worked hard for us, and never complained. She helped us figure out the complicated steps to a college application, and always had extra copies for those who needed them. She worked with a multitude of forms, papers and deadlines.

Mrs. Lane, the Class of 1998 would like to thank you for always being there when we needed you. You did so much for us.

Thank you

The Class of 1998

In the tight knit community of Georgetown, the Class of 1998 has grown very close over the years. One would think that the support of each other would be enough to make it through the trying time known as senior year. However, without the support of our new principal, Mr. Robert Quinn, our road to graduation would have been much stormier.

Always willing to take the time to talk or help out with a problem, Mr. Quinn has become a constant in everyday life at GHS this year. Through student faculty games, cookouts, and other events, he has helped bring the class even closer together. All of his efforts have helped make our final year at GHS our most memorable.

Thank you for all you have done for us.

When I went to sleep that night, I dreamed of two men speaking. Who they were I could not tell, what was said is all I know: 1: Are we decay upon a bleeding earth? 2: No we are fools upon a cake. 1: Are we living amongst the dead? 2: No, for the dead are free of our curse 1: A curse? 2: Let me re-phrase myself my friend 1: Yes, please do 2: The dead have passed our test. 1: Then they are still living. 2: No, but now their souls are living 1: So, are we living??? 2: No, we exist.

Hello. R. Well, I guess I'm not doing this like everybody else. E. (No offense, everybody.) E. Perhaps I'm taking the easy way out, y' know, not writing anything. B. But then again, perhaps this is a deep-seeded, passionate cry against conformity. T. But seriously, folks, I really don't have anything to say... except... I've been in high school 437 years (just this week) and now I'm done. O. So, y' know, goodbye and stuff. O. Thanks to anyone who helped me out along the way. R. Don't forget to be nice. P.S. On really cold mornings, do you ever put on your socks right after they come out of the dryer, when they're still hot? If not, try it sometime. Next to love, music, and jellybeans, it's the best thing there is.

Art 1-4, psych 4, newspaper 4, Happy 3-4. Being different is unique and a lot of people are afraid of being unique. Sean, you are insane baby stay that way insanity = happiness. Mon Man thanks to you my life has made a 180 degree turn 4 the best. I Love You. Do be do be do the penguins are following you. No wait! It's the JB Crew T.W. Chrissy "MIA" since April of 97 will never b 4gotten. I will always rembr the crazy times we had Jezzy. Lets get lost in BSH again. Always in twilight zone Jez we are finally being treated like Queens thinks 2 our Kings. Is the room getting smaller? I need sugar, sugar, sugar where the heck is my coffee. Sugar highs r the best if you knw how 2 use them. Always rembr this Jezzifer it is the only info you will need 2 knw in life. I bet Romeo and Juliet never had to meet the prom devils. Where is my Banana I gotta make a call? The clouds r forming those crazy shapes again. What do pins in a wrtbrd remind you of? Thanks 4 those D.H. yrs Betty. I want 2 sit on Satan's lap as people walk by with a blank look on their faces because they don't understand uniqueness.

Thanks all you G-Town Royals for making my senior year pretty great And as for all you back home I'll always remember you, especially Tiff ("Blow Pop"), Binki, Megs, Michelle, and Kristin Asgeirsdottir (You Wh**el). Never forget "A & OL" through "Cinderella", joining troupe #4687 against the will of Miss Roupas, JenLynn (Antichrist B**ch), the NARO, RHPS "I'm just a sweet transvestite", paging B.J. all night long, the "A & OL" cast party: "would you like to buy some girl scout cookies?", multicolored smurfs and tuzzballs hiding in your underwear drawer, I & D in the practice room, Dana will you go out with me?, modeling in Victoria's Secret, the Jewish Mother THEY OVER CHARGED ME!, my two dates for Ring Dance (FUN, FUN, FUN!). And, of course, buttered on both sides! Oh, don't deny it I know you all are! Especially JEFF, ODINN, and CHRIS, but keep wearing those skirts (they're kinda sexy!) As for all you G-Town folks, I'll have to fill you in later

Farewell

It was our freshman year and the class of 1998 was floating free. Mrs. Clay took us under her wing while everyone else was too busy. Then came along a caring custodian, with devotion and patience to give us all. "Hammer" is what we affectionately call him, with all due respect behind the name.

They led us our years of high school with a willingness to listen, patience, and a cooperative attitude. Mrs. Clay and Mr. Boyd, you are the backbone of our class. We appreciate your time and effort through hassles and headaches. You both brought this class to where it is today. We all thank you.

The Class of 1998

Children of the Eighties

We are the children of the eighties. We are not the first "lost" generation nor today's lost generation, in fact, we think we know just where we stand - or are discovering it as we go.

We are the ones who played with lego building blocks when they were just building blocks and gave Malibu Barbie crew cuts with safety scissors that never really cut. A trip to the local ice cream shop wasn't needed, for we had our own Snoopy Snow Cone machine. We collected Garbage Pail Kids Cards, Cabbage Patch Kids, My Little Ponies, Hot Wheels and He-Man Action Figures; and thought She-Ra looked a little bit like I would when I was a woman. Big wheels and bicycles with streamers were the way to go, and sidewalk chalk was all you needed to build a city. Imagination was the key. It made the Ewok Treehouse big enough for you to be Luke and the kitchen table and an old sheet dark enough to be a tent in the forest. Your world was the backyard and it was all you needed. With your pink portable tape player, Debbie Gibson sang back to you, and everyone wanted a skirt just like the Material Girl, and a glove like Michael Jackson's.

Today we are the one's who sing along with Bruce Springsteen and the Bangles perfectly, and have no idea why. We recite lines with the Ghostbusters and still look to the Goonies for a great adventure. We flip through TV stations and stop at the A-Team, Knight Rider, The Dukes of Hazard, and Fame, laugh with the Cosby Show, Punky Brewster, and "What you talkin' 'bout willis?" We hold strong affections for the Muppets and Gummy Bears and why did they take the Smurfs off the air? After school specials were only about cigarettes and stepfamilies, Romper Room was nothing like Barney, and aren't Power Rangers just Voltron reincarnated? We are the ones who still read Nancy Drew, The Hardy Boys, Bobbie Twins, Judy Blume, Richard Scary, and the Electric Company. Friendship bracelets were ties you couldn't break and friendship pins went on your shoes - preferably high top velcro Reeboks. Pegged jeans were in, as were layered socks, jean jackets, charm necklaces and bracelets, and side ponytails. Rave was a girl's best friend. Braces with colored rubber bands made you look cool. The backdoor was always open and Mom always served only red Kool-Aide to the neighborhood kids - never drank new Coke.

Entertainment was cheap and lasted for hours. All you needed to be a princess were high heels and an apron. The Sit 'n Spin always made you dizzy but never made you stop. Pogo-Balls were dangerous weapons and Chinese jump rope never failed to trip someone. In your underoos you were Wonder Woman, Spider Man, R2D2, or Muppet Babies and in your treehouse you were king. In the eighties, nothing was wrong. Did you know the President was shot? Star Wars was not only a movie. Did you ever play in a bomb shelter? Did you see the Challenger explode or feed a homeless man? We fought in Vietnam and bought pieces of the Berlin Wall at the store. Aids was not the number one killer in the United States. We didn't start the fire, Billy Joel.

In the eighties we redefined the American Dream and those years defined us. We are the generation in between strife and facing strife not turning our backs. The eighties may have made us idealistic, but it's idealism that will push us and be passed on to our children - the first children of the twenty-first century. Never forget, we are the children of the eighties. If this is familiar, you are one of us . . . pass it on to all the others.

-Author Unknown

Seniors, we have reached the light at the end of the tunnel. Now, all we need to do is find the light switch on the other side.

Our high school years have been an up and down hike for many of us but I think we all agree senior year was a down hill climb. It peaked so fast it only gave us time to look back at the fun times and memories we have all shared.

Georgetown may be small but throughout the years we have witnessed the town grow and change. Even our school and everything we used to know has changed before our eyes. We have gone through so many changes that our senior class is one in a million. We have had four principals, Mr. Silverman, Mr. Lane, Mr. Murphy, and Mr. Quinn. We are the first class to graduate from the brand new school, first class not to have any senior privileges, and the last class to get out earlier than the other grades. Though we have gone through so many changes we have all made it.

I would like to wish everyone good luck with all their dreams and challenges and a safe and happy future. The Yearbook is full of many memories that will be remembered and kept in our hearts forever. I would like to thank everyone who has made this yearbook happen including Mrs. Clay and Mr. Lucas for their long hours and help.

LIFE HOLDS UNLIMITED POTENTIAL

YOU HAVE THE ABILITY TO ATTAIN WHATEVER YOU SEEK; WITHIN YOU IS EVERY POTENTIAL YOU CAN IMAGINE.. ALWAYS AIM HIGHER THAN YOU BELIEVE YOU CAN REACH. SO OFTEN, YOU'LL DISCOVER THAT WHEN YOUR TALENTS ARE SET FREE BY YOUR IMAGINATION, YOU CAN ACHIEVE ANY GOAL.. IF PEOPLE OFFER THEIR HELP OR WISDOM AS YOU GO THROUGH LIFE, ACCEPT IT GRATEFULLY. YOU CAN LEARN MUCH FROM THOSE WHO HAVE GONE BEFORE YOU.

NEVER BE AFRAID OR HESITANT TO STEP OFF THE ACCEPTED PATH AND HEAD IN THE RIGHT WAY FOR YOU. ALWAYS BELIEVE THAT YOU WILL ULTIMATELY SUCCEED AT WHATEVER YOU DO, AND NEVER FORGET THE VALUE OF PERSISTENCE, DISCIPLINE, AND DETERMINATION. YOU ARE MEANT TO BE WHATEVER YOU DREAM OF BECOMING.
